A reading from the Genesis 8:2-10

MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD OF SCHOOL

On Wednesday, the whole school attended St Joseph's Catholic Church for our Ash Wednesday Mass, presided over by Father Fortunatus. It was a wonderful occasion, giving the boys the opportunity to reflect on times that they may not have lived up to Christian expectations and receive penance for their sins. At a moment in history when newspaper headlines are filled with talk of influenza and flooding, we were reminded that our time on this earth is temporary and that "to ashes you will return". Mr Tissot spoke, at the beginning of Mass, of the need for prayer and strong faith in difficult times and I pray that our boys can find strength in God.

Later in this bulletin, you will find government guidance on the recent influenza outbreak. Can I please ask that you spend some time reading this important information.

Kind Regards

Alan Bryant
Head of School

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Adam and Eve Disobey God

Today is the first Sunday of Lent. The word 'Lent' comes from very old word which means springtime. It is the time of year when the days are getting longer as summer gets closer. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and last for forty days. Over the next few weeks the readings we will hear encourage us to say 'yes' to God and 'no' to our own selfishness.

Lent means springtime, a little time of year when new life begins and everything starts to grow. We can make a fresh start too, and try extra hard to be good.

Today's story is all about temptations, when you think about or do something that you know is wrong. Like Adam and Eve, we are all tempted sometimes to do something wrong.

God wants us to choose to do what is right, but this is not always easy. During Lent we make promises – we may give up something nice, or promise to do something good. Whatever we do we try to keep in touch with God, to be less selfish and more generous.

Prayer:

Dear Jesus, there will be time during Lent when we might find it difficult to keep our promises. But if you are there to help us then we will keep on trying. Amen
