

ANTI-BULLYING

'A repeated or persistent attempt by one person or group to exert control in an anti-social and detrimental way over another person or group'.

Salvatorian College Anti-Bullying Policy 2021

Salvatorian College has an absolutely zero tolerance stance on bullying. The school is committed in tackling all aspects of bullying whether Verbal, Physical or Indirect (Cyber Bullying).

Examples of the major different types of bullying are listed in the Student Journal and include physically hurting someone else, making threats directly or by text message, email or on internet chatrooms, forcing someone give you money, verbal abuse, making hurtful personal remarks, making racist, sexist or homophobic comments, calling people names because of their religion.
